AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

Mrs. Garfield's Acceptance of her Pension.

A Chinaman says China has Little Interest in the Chinese Bill—A Cyclone in Virginia.

WASHINGTON, May 13. — Senator Sherman has received the following:

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 8.

My Dear Sir: I have received your note, with enclosed note of pension granted me for my husband's sake. I am truly mindful of the generous kindness shown the family of Gen. Garfield not only by his friends but by the National Legislature, and may I ask that you make acknowledgement of this in whatever way and by whatever expression of my gratitude seems to you appropriate. With sentiments of high regards, very truly yours,

LUCRETIA E. GARFIELD.

IT WAS A LIE.

One of the attaches of the Chinese Legation was asked last night what had become of the stated purpose of the Chinese Embassy to withdraw from diplomatic relations and close the ports of China to American commerce, provided any bill was passed by Congress restricting Chinese immigration. He said he did not know that the Embassy ever had any such intention or ever made such a threat, though some of the attorneys who were opposing the bill before Congress had made such statements. He said that diplomatic relations would remain as they were; that notwithstanding the statements to Congress the Chinese Government had very little interest in the bill, one way or the other, and that the Chinese Minister took the part he did in the matter at the request of the Chinese Six Companies, who were interested, financially, very extensively.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The Senate Select Committee on Woman Suffrage, by three to two, have agreed to recommend the adoption of Lapham's joint resolution by submitting the following Constitutional amendment:

"Article XVI., Section 1.—The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

"Section 2. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce this article."

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICS.

Senator Mitchell has expressed his views concerning the Harrisburg ticket in the following dispatch:

WASHINGTON, May 12.

Major Geo. W Merrick, Wellsboro, Pa: Right is mighty and ever triumphant. I have done all for peace, but war is inevitable; not upon men but upon candidates who have lashed themselves to an unrighteous cause to curry the favor of "bossism," machinism and to the use of the spoils system to bolster up the stalwart usurpation. I am against this everywhere and forever. It is a plain, patriotic duty to put down this stalwart oligarchy at any cost, so that true Republicanism and the Republic itself may live and thrive. Organize, work and fight to the end.

JOHN I. MITCHELL.

DEATH DECIDES.

James T. Smith, contestant for the seat of Representative Charles M. Shelly, of the fourth Alabama district, died to night of pneumonia after an illness of less than forty-eight hours.

OVER THE WATERS.

The Patched up Peace is Broken up by the Repression Bill.

LONDON, May 12.—The Standard says: The peace patched up between the Government and the Irish members of Parliament is entirely broken by the introduction of the repression bill. The Irish members complain bitterly of the abandonment of the new policy of conciliation, and intend to offer strenuous opposition to the passing of the bill.

The Times regards the repression bill as proof that the Government has measured the nature and extent of the hostile forces with which they are confronted in Ireland.

Healy says the Irish party has powder for a second debate, and will then attack the measure bitterly. He regards the suppression of jury trial as the most vindictive blow yet struck at Ireland. This view is shared by all the Land League members.

Parnell has not applied for police protection.

BOSTON, May 12.—The Herald has the following cable special from London, May 11: The bill for the preservation of peace in Ireland was introduced amid profound silence in the presence of a great crowd on the floor and in the galleries. The measure is regarded by the Irish members as the most stringent that could possibly be suggested.

The Troubles in Egypt.

LONDON, May 12.—English and French ironclads will proceed immediately to Alexandria. The remainder of Europe will be represented by Austrian and Italian men-of-war. The Chamber of Notables unanimously refused to assemble unless legally convened. When Arabi Bey heard of their decision, he exclaimed: "Then we shall have civil war." A military demonstration is momentarily expected.

Cause of his Removal.

HAVANA, May 11.—The Treasurer of the Havana Custom House, Lopez Helgrin, was removed because duties amounting to $500,000, owed by various firms, had not been collected.

Anti-Assassination Meeting.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The anti-assassination meeting at Cooper Union came off last night. The hall was crowded. Mayor Grace presided and spoke. Trouble was feared from the O'Donovan-Rossa faction and police were stationed through the hall. Rossa was present. Mrs. Parnell appeared on the platform. Richard O'Gorman spoke in favor of the Parnell policy. Resolutions were adopted of abhorrence at the assassination, objecting to Gladstone's present policy and counseling every means to frustrate it. There were cries of "three cheers for the assassins," and a considerable element present was of that way of feeling.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Silver bars, 14½; money, 20; Governments, irregular; stocks, strong; Western Union, 84⅝; Quicksilver, 10½; Pacific, 42¾; Mariposa, 2; Wells, Fargo & Co., 126½; New York Central, 127⅞; Erie, 36½; Panama, 205; Denver and Rio Grande, 61⅞; Union Pacific, 133¾—bonds 117⅞; Central Pacific, 90½—bonds, 117; Sutro, ⅛.

Another Cyclone.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 13.—A cyclone Wednesday completely razed to the ground residences, barns, fences, uprooted trees, caused the washing away of bridges and beat down the growing crops.

More of the Texas Cyclone.

PARSONS, Kan., May 13.—Information has been received that the storm which so nearly destroyed the coal mining camps of McAllister, on the 6th inst., also struck Mill Creek, destroying every house in the place except one. One man was killed and two children fatally hurt.

Met his Reward.

DALLAS, Texas, May 12.—An attempt was made to murder Gov. Orton, of the Chickasaw Nation, a few nights ago, by shooting into his house. One of the would-be assassins named Stevens was followed by the Indian police into the Wachita river region and killed.

COAST DISPATCHES.

Ferris, the Tichborne Claimant being Recognized.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Ferris, alias Sir Roger Tichborne, the California claimant to the Tichborne title, mentioned some months ago in these dispatches, is again in the city. His attorney says that recently he has been put in communication with three persons, residents of this State, formerly in the employ of Tichborne family. One, Charles Burden, who was page to Sir Edward Doughty, Tichborne's uncle. He was recently public administrator of Tuolumne county; another is a woman living in Alameda county, who was in the employ of the family twelve years, and married in 1855 in the Tichborne private chapel. The third is a man formerly employed as gardner by Sir Henry Tichborne. These three met Ferris at the attorney's office last Saturday, and after conversation recognized and acknowledged him as Rorger Tichborne. Arrangements are now being made for Tichborne to visit Father Lefebvre, his former spiritual adviser, now living in Paris.

STOCKS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12. — Mexican, $0⅞; Alpha, 50c; Utah, $2¾; Diablo, $4; Belle, $6¾; Bullion, 25c; Bodie, $5½; King, $27½.

GRAND OFFICERS I. O. O. F.

The following grand officers of the I. O. O. F. were appointed last night by the Grand Warden: A. F. Hitchcock, Chaplain; L. A Simon, Grand Marshal; F. A. Hornblower, Grand Conductor; A. L. Chandler, G. G.; E. Dunder, G. Herald.

ANOTHER INDIGNATION MEETING.

TOMBSTONE, May 12. — There was an immense demonstration at Charleston to-night to denounce the President's proclamation. Speeches were made by Judge Robinson, W. M. Smith, Sam. Purdy and others. Resolutions were passed condemning the President and advisers.

The Newer Arithmetic.

In one lot there are four calves, and in another two young men with their hair parted in the centre. How many calves in all?

An Alderman who has an official salary of $100 per year, spends $120 to be elected. How much would he lose if he didn't sell his influence to rings and schemers?

Mary bought a comb for ten cents, a spool of thread for six cents, and a paper of pins for seven cents. She handed the clerk a fifty cent piece with a stove-pipe hole through the rim. How many cents did she receive in change!

A man ordered a ton of coal and received 1,800 pounds. How much more was due him and how did he go to work to get it?

A woman bought eleven yards of cloth and paid for it with butter, giving three pounds of butter for a yard. There was a stone weighing five pounds in the center of the crock, and the dealer cheated her a yard and a half in measuring the cloth. Who was ahead on that trade, and how much?

A farmer's wife has twenty-two hens. A preacher comes to stay over Sunday, and she cooks a neck-piece of corn-beef. How many hens has she left?

A boy earns eighty cents a day and beats the old man out of his three dollars per week. How much will he have after the first grand aggregation of gigantic wonders leaves town?

Albert has nine marbles and Aaron steals four. How many are left? Aaron drops a dime from his pocket and Albert swallows it. What was Aaron's profit on the whole business? —Free Press.

A Million Bushels.

Dr. Glenn hopes to raise a million bushels of wheat this year. He has promised his foreman a bonus of $10,000 if that quantity of wheat is harvested on his ranch this season. And from all accounts there is a good prospect that the foreman will get the "stake." It is understood that Glenn would now rather raise one million bushels of wheat in one year than be postmaster. On his ranch of say 60,000 acres this yield would be 16⅔ bushels to the acre. When it comes to raising grain by the million bushels there is something in farming that excites the imagination.—Marysville Appeal.

Love is a queer thing and so is happiness. To enjoy either completely it has to be shared.

POLITICAL ISSUES.

The signing of the Chinese Immigration bill has narrowed down the points of controversy between Republicans and Democrats by one at least. On the Mongolian question the "honors are easy" and the one odd trick in favor of the Republicans, so we shall presume there shall be no antagonizing over it, and shall hope all our people will pull together, for the benefit of the influence the unanimity will have upon the country at large, and in obtaining for California a more favorable opinion among our Christian brethren in the Eastern States.

There is little of national politics to excite controversy on the Pacific Coast during the approaching campaign, and unless the Anti Monopoly party should make a showing we cannot expect, or the anti-immigration sentiment suddenly breaks out—an event not all improbable—we shall be obliged to rely upon our local wants and resources for the shibboleths and battle cries of the contest. This condition of things should, and we hope will be, taken advantage of by our friends to weed our local governments of many things that imperatively call for amendment. Our local affairs have most invariably been in the hands of the Democracy. It has only been once in a while that Republicans have caught the pickets of our enemy asleep and stole a man or two into the county government. All our indebtedness and all the mismanagement, if any in the past, lays upon the consciences of the Democracy. But at the last Presidential election it was proven that Los Angeles county had thrown off her allegiance to the misrule party, and was Republican. And recent acquisitions to our population has increased our numerical strength, and we are now complete masters of the field whenever we go to the polls and show our hands And now that we have the strength it becomes us to exert it and see that the men who collect and disburse our public monies are of the party of reform and retrenchment—from the ranks of the mechanics and yeomen of the land. We cannot in the future consistently charge our enemies with wrong-doing if we continue to allow them to sit in high places and get away with the substance of the people.

Our present intention was but to introduce to the reader the facts of the local situation as between parties, reserving to the future such suggestions as the circumstances call for to urge our Republican friends to action in the interest of the tax-payers of the country.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL NASH, of Ohio, has recently decided an interesting case. It was upon an application made to the Secretary of State for the incorporation of an association organized for the purpose of resisting the execution of a law of the State taxing saloons. The Attorney-General as might be expected, decided that the laws of Ohio make no provision for putting legal machinery in motion for their own annulment, and accordingly advises the Secretary of State to refuse the application of the law resisting liquor sellers and would-be nullifiers. How the Attorney for the State could have decided differently it is not easy to understand. The vital principle in the decision is the law of self-preservation which it enunciates—the same as that enunciated by wise, clear-headed, sagacious and patriotic President Lincoln when he declared—replying to Secessionist assertions that the Government had no Constitutional power to protect itself against armed rebellion—that the Constitution made no provision for its own destruction, and that the Government, by virtue of the very fact of its existence, possessed the intrinsic power and authority to defend that existence—to protect its own life.

THAT HOTEL.

E. J. Baldwin, Esq., is at the Pico House. He takes occasion to express himself decidedly upon our hotel facilities. Being himself in the business he appreciates all the points of the situation, and has heard much complaint from travelers and visitors because unable to obtain suitable accommodations here. He also judges that the coming season will see a demand upon our hotel resources far in excess of that of the past winter, and agrees with us that not a day should be lost in providing a suitable caravansary on some suitable commanding point, to meet the coming avalanche of business. Mr. Baldwin estimates that this city has lost many thousands of dollars in the past year, and will lose more in the future unless another large, first class house is provided.

THE WEATHER.

The elements seem to have been on the warpath of late, their destructive power being particularly directed against the eastern portion of this land of ours. Floods have swept over States and storms have devastated towns and settlements. Cyclones dealing death and destruction in their path are becoming alarmingly frequent. Some of the Atlantic and also the Western States have been visited with a heavy snow storm in the middle of spring. All these unusual occurrences, some say, are to be attributed to the existence of disturbances on the face of the sun. Whether there is anything in this theory or not, there is a field for the study of scientists, and especially those devoted to meteorology, into the causes of all these atmospheric phenomena. Meanwhile, this pacific clime on the border of the western ocean has enjoyed almost complete immunity from severe storms. Here we have had the minimum of bad and the maximum of good weather.

Mr. Longfellow wrote the "Golden Legend" in four weeks, not counting the Sundays; then he spent six months in correcting it and cutting it down. His example is prayerfully commended to amateur correspondents afflicted with cacoethes scribendi.

CHINESE MERCHANTS.

Their Views of the Chinese Bill—Regard it Favorably.

Yesterday a TIMES reporter, to gratify his curiosity to know how the Chinese viewed Arthur's approval of the anti-Chinese bill, visited two of the prominent Chinese merchants of this city and obtained their views upon the present status of the Chinese question. He found them well informed, and ready with argument on every point. The first place was that of

QUONG HING,

On Spring street. When the reporter entered, the boss Chinaman was sitting reading the TIMES, and another had a copy of the San Francisco Call. When asked what he wanted with the TIMES, he said he went out and bought a copy occasionally in order to see what was the latest news. For himself he was glad that the bill had been signed, as the "Chinamen here would scatter out over the country," to use his own phrase, and be benefited by an increase of wages demanded by their society. He did not think the bill had been passed for political capital, but people had a right to protect themselves, and if presence of the Chinese here made times hard, let any more be prevented from coming, and times would get better. The people of Australia have successfully prevented the influx of the Chinese for five or six years, and now only a few rich speculators stray down that way. He thought this would be the effect of the present Anti-Chinese bill. Furthermore, if the present bill could exclude the Chinese for ten years, they could also be excluded forever. Only the inhabitants of the sea-board cities in China are acquainted with the Anti-Chinese sentiment in California; those of the interior towns and provinces are quite ignorant of the mind of the people here on this question. The farm hands in China receive, on an average, thirty-five cents per day for wages. He thought business men could do better there than here. In China, the men of family do not generally have to work out for a living, but have their own places, from which they derive sufficient support. He mentioned several ways by which the law might be evaded. He thought they might come here as British subjects, or as travelers or merchants, but he agreed that this law could be made as effective as the laws against murder or other crimes. He thought the President had signed the bill to please the public. He expects boycotting to be extensively practiced, and to result in driving the Chinese on this coast to the Eastern States. He thought that prohibition against foreigners unequal which admitted other foreigners and refused the Chinese. Otherwise it was not a free country. He seemed to think the Constitution of the United States would protect them fully. Quong Hing seemed to be well posted in political matters.

AH TOY.

The next visited was Ah Toy, at the store of Quang Sang, on Los Angeles street. Toy is a contractor and Chinese boss, and is an intelligent Chinaman. He said that all the Chinamen he had talked with were well pleased at the President signing the Anti Chinese bill as it would prevent more Chinamen from coming, and give more employment to those already here, and make wages higher. He thought the anti-Chinese sentiment was not deep-seated in the hearts of the American people for the reason that their hands contradicted their lips, or in other words while their talk was against Chinamen their acts tended to keep them here and induce others to come. In regard to the amount of money the Chinese sent back to China he thought that it was very small compared to the amount sent to some other foreign countries. He thought there were 50,000 Chinese in California, who probably sent home thirty dollars apiece on an average during the year. This would equal a sum of but $150,000 annually. But he claimed an offset to this in the $100,000 recently raised in the East by O'Donovan Rossa for the cause of Ireland, and the vast sums exported annually for other purposes, besides that which the Chinese sent out. He hinted that B. F. Butler had slightly stretched the truth on the amount of coin annually swallowed by the Celestial dragon, for said Ah Toy, "Let him inspect the steamship books at San Francisco, for they will tell exactly how much money goes." In China only the poor men desired to come to California. There they work in the rice fields for fifteen to twenty cents per day, but then other things are correspondingly cheap. One dollar went further there than five here. He had acquired a competency, and would return to China in about two years to stay. He said, too, that Americans had never, to his personal knowledge, been maltreated while in China, but had the utmost freedom.

These are views of the two leading Chinamen of this city.

Invitations were sent out by Chief King, yesterday, to quite a number of gentlemen inviting them to attend a grand "ball" at the Hotel de Thompson. Nearly all accepted and will get the usual "send-off" in to-morrow's Police Court.

From a telegram received by Mr. A. R. Loomis, we learn that his daughter, Mrs. Alma L. Brainerd, died at Manchester, Iowa, yesterday morning, leaving a little infant but a few days old. Mrs. Dr. Brainerd before her marriage spent a number of months here in Los Angeles with her sister, Mrs S C. Hubbell. She leaves many warm friends here who will mourn her loss.

Governor Washburne Dying.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

A Great Flood Visits Jacksonport, Arkansas.

Miss Waterman Seriously Injured—Governor Washburn Dying—Danenhower—After the Assassins.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 13.—The Gazette's Jacksonport, White river special says: A destructive overflow visited this section and the water stands thirty-one feet eight inches above low water mark. There is not a foot of dry ground in town, except Jefferson street which affords a refuge to all the stock which the citizens possess. A number of families have been compelled to take refuge in the upper story of the storehouse. The whole country, for miles around, is one sea of water, and the damage to crops and stock is up in the thousands. A large portion of Oil Trough and big bottom are under water, and the damage to the wheat crop is terrible. The present flood is the highest of any since 1867. If a second rain should come "good bye to everything." Weather clear. A strong northeast wind is blowing, and hopes are entertained that the worst is over. A Gazette special from Bakersville, Arkansas, says, this section has just been visited by an unprecedented rain, commeneing at 8 o'clock Monday evening, and continuing in torrents for twenty-four hours without a moment's cessation, swelling the rivers and creeks to a hight beyond the knowledge of the oldest inhabitant, sweeping everything before it. Mills, houses, bridges and fencing are all washed away, utterly obliterating the entire crop on the bottom lands. Not only the crops but the soil is all gone, leaving only the bare clay surface. Maxfield & Bros. woolen mill, valued at $20,000, and Smith's flour mill, valued at $5,000, are both a total loss. Rutherford's mill is damaged $3,000. A number of other mills are not yet heard from. All are believed to be a total loss.

Danenhower Rewarded.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Aldrich introduced a bill in the House, thanking Lieut. Danenhower, and conferring upon him the rank of Lieutenant-Commander.

Serious Accident.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 13.—Mr. Waldo Waterman, while out driving this afternoon with his wife and sister, Miss Helen Waterman, and Dr. Rice, the horse became frightened, upsetting the buggy, throwing the occupants out and seriously injuring Miss Waterman, the other occupants being uninjured.

Reward Offered.

DUBLIN, May 13.—The Government has issued a special proclamation offering a reward of £500 for information leading to the arrest of any one harboring the assassins of Cavendish and Burke or assisting in their escape. Persons harboring assassins are liable to be sentenced to penal servitude for life. Information must be given within three months. It is believed that the assassins are still in Dublin.

HIS NAME IS RUSH.

DUBLIN, May 13. The police have found out the name of the man who drove the car containing the murderers, is Rush.

Three Men Arrested.

CORK, May 13.—The Government is in possession of information leading to important revelations. Three men have been arrested at a hotel here.

COAST ITEMS.

The chain gang at Reno, Nev., consists of three Chinamen and one Indian.

Ice has been formed every night for a week throughout the Reese river valley, Nevada.

Mark Biddle, an inmate of the county hospital at Nevada city, committed suicide yesterday.

Fresno county has more land assessed by 450,000 acres than any other county in the State, Los Angeles coming next.

Livermore station shipped during the first twenty-five days of April, three hundred and thirty boxes, or 9,900 dozen of eggs, worth, at market prices, $2,100.

An immense apple crop is in prospect in El Dorado county, if the codling moth and other enemies of the fruit will let it alone.

James Knotwell, a Cornish miner, at work in the Eureka mine, Placer county, was killed the other day by a heavy timber falling down the shaft upon him.

A bill for $2,000 damages has been put in by the owners of property destroyed at the late anti-Chinese riot in Martinez, which is said to have been led by a county official.

There is considerable excitement in educational circles in Nevada City, over the alleged dishonest practices on the part of certain successful applicants for certificates during the teachers' examination here.

A Chinaman was last Saturday arrested at Carson for poisoning three horses, sixty chickens and two dogs, belonging to one of his countrymen. The accuser says the accused tried to poison a man, but failed.

James Strain's orchard, on the east side of the Feather river, has been almost submerged beneath the slickens. Last year he paddled a little boat from tree to tree to gather the fruit. Now all his trees, except those on high land, are dead.

Charles McFadden was recently crossing Mad river, carrying the mail from Trinidad to Dow's Prairie. The river was swollen and the fording was hazardous. His horse stumbled and fell and was drowned. The mail bags were lost. McFadden, after desperate efforts, reached the shore.

Chinese funerals in Carson, Nevada, are followed by a large band of hungry Indians. The roast pig and other Chinese luxuries attract a large crowd of redskin mourners. But the Chinamen usually doctor the provisions left for the spirits of the departed, and the Indian's worship is sometimes disturbed by paroxysms of vomiting.

Martin Yenter, a cripple, lived alone in his cabin on Willow creek, Plumas county. The hermit seldom left his hut for a visit to the neighbors, going only when want of provisions compelled him. He was recently found dead in his cabin. He was lying on his back, with his feet together and his hands crossed over his breast. He was a native of Pennsylvania, fifty-three years old.

Judge Senter, formerly of San Jose, recently went for a boat ride on Puget Sound with a friend. Neither of them could row, and the strong tide carried the little dory far out to sea, out of sight of land. The frail boat was tossed about, and the occupants were helpless in their danger. They were at last discovered by some fishermen in a sail-boat, who came to their rescue.

The Spokan Falls, M. T, Chronicle takes exception to the suggestion contained in "Suggestions to Emigrants," that single men are safer in taking their chances in the Northwest than married men. The paper asserts that the risk is no greater and the benefit to the Territory is immeasurably greater, for the immigrant with a family to settle than for a bachelor. In Spokan Falls there are ninety single men in a population of nine hundred, and only twenty-five are marriageable young women.

The Chinese have established a boot and shoe factory in San Jose. A large majority of the retail dealers in boots and shoes held a meeting on Monday evening and resolved to purchase no shoes from Chinese manufactories. Also, resolutions were offered to drop all trade with manufactories in San Francisco wherein Chinese were employed. This course was not adopted; its consideration was postponed until more accurate information could be obtained on the subject.

ANAHEIM ITEMS.

Brickmaking is going on briskly. When the brick is burnt, look out for a building boom.

An election will be held in Bolsa Grande School District on June 4th, to vote upon the question of raising a tax of $250 to repair the school-house.

A strawberry 11¾ inches in circumference is about as large as that kind of fruit generally gets. Mr. G. R. Hinde had one that size and a number very nearly as large.

A year or so ago there were about twenty empty dwelling houses in Anaheim; to-day there are very few, if any. That shows that the place is in a more decidedly prosperous condition than twelve months ago.

WESTMINSTER.

There will be a picnic at Anaheim Landing on the Fourth of July. The ladies of the Congregational Church will furnish refreshments for the occasion, including ice cream, cake, strawberries, etc.

Mowing machines are running in every direction and a fair amount of hay will be cut. Much of the barley is going to be plump enough to make good grain, and about all that will do will be headed and threshed.

A LADY LAWYER.

Mrs. Clara S. Foltz, the Famous San Francisco Advocate.

Passing this way is Impelled to Stop—Enraptured with the City of the Angels—Political Matters.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, the celebrated lady lawyer of San Francisco, spent yesterday in Los Angeles, and will pass on this morning to Tucson, where she is going on legal business, and also to see her father who is engaged there with mining interests. Mrs. Foltz had no intention of remaining over one train, but yesterday morning as the orange laden perfumes of the morning breeze floated by the new depot she was entranced, and could proceed no further until she had seen something of Los Angeles for herself. In the forenoon she was the guest of General Mansfield, who, laying by some pressing legal business, took the time to show Mrs. Foltz what could be seen of Los Angeles in that short time. In the afternoon she was the recipient of many callers at the Cosmopolitan. She was so charmed with the natural beauty and advantages of our city that her usual power of word-painting seemed to be lost for the nonce. The view from the top of the Normal School building was one upon which she long lingered. General Mansfield enumerated to her the many social and political advantages enjoyed by this city, ending by saying that it lacked only the complement of a lady lawyer, to which Mrs. Foltz replied that "that might be soon supplied." A TIMES reporter interviewed her in the afternoon and found her surroundedbs, a pile of manuscript and political work. Mrs. Foltz efficiently stumped several of the central counties of this State during the Garfield campaign, and had the satisfaction of seeing them go Republican by overwhelming majorities, in every instance. The local papers speak of her oratorical efforts in the highest terms, which the writer hereof knows to be true, for her speeches are full of solid meat—facts—presented logically, seasoned with well-chosen words, and delivered with power. Mrs. Foltz reports that the Republicans above are united and full of courage, and spoke of the Democratic hopes of the Chinese veto as "a flash in the pan." She graphically described the wretched condition of Chinatown, and "the Mongolian vermin that is creeping in unchecked through the Golden Gate." She is very enthusiastic over the success of the Republican ticket the coming fall, and gave many forcible reasons therefor. She did not have much to say about candidates, but thought Estee would make a good governor. She had also a high opinion of General Mansfield, and said that candidates for all the offices were springing up very thickly everywhere. Mrs. Foltz may accept the invitation of the State Central Committee for the fall canvass, in which case it is to be hoped Los Angeles will not be overlooked. She is powerful to convert Democrats into good Republicans. Mrs. Foltz will shortly pay Los Angeles a longer visit.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

C. L. Andrews, one of the proprietors of the Jay Rial's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, is in the city. This excellent company will play here on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings May 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon the 27th. This company of 24 artists recently closed a very successful season at Haverly's California Theatre, San Francisco. Mr. Andrews guarantees us that the company will play here in its entirety, with the same trained blood hounds, educated donkey, and jubilee singers which appeared in San Francisco. The veteran theatrical agent, John Osborne, is now billing the city thoroughly.

The Scott Case.

When the case of the People against Scott was called yesterday morning in the Police Court, the defendant was absent in body and the city treasurer rejoices in two hundred dollars more cash in his new safe. The fact that Scott failed to appear is conclusive evidence of his guilt. That such a den of iniquity existed undiscovered in the heart of the city so long is strange.

The Fair.

The District Board of Agriculture met yesterday. Mr. Elwood Cooper was present from Santa Barbara. Nothing definite was done. Only twenty-five hundred dollars are needed to start this fair in Los Angeles. It will not go out of the county.

A very sad affair occurred on the Ranchito one day last week. The facts as we gather them are about as follows: Louis Mandoso, a Mexican, and family live in that neighborhood. Mandoso left home the morning of the 9th inst., leaving his wife and two small children at home. Some time during the day the wife went to visit some of the neighbors, leaving the children, one quite small and the other a babe only a few months old, at home. While absent the house caught fire. The older child was large enough to get out of the house, but was not sufficiently strong to carry with it the babe, consequently it was burned to death. The entire contents of the house were consumed. The cause of the fire is not definitely known, but it is supposed that the larger child set it in attempting to light a cigarette.—Downey Signal.

A lady driving a horse and buggy yesterday evening on First street near Hill, ran over a child. Fortunately the child was not seriously hurt.

The City Council want six more carts to sprinkle the streets.

Hard oak wood was selling yesterday on the streets, at $12.50 per cord.

How would an electrict light look on the top of the Presbyterian spire?

Next Tuesday the assessment of the Anaheim Water Company will be delinquent.

Scorpions are numerous in the hill where the landslide took place on the Feliz ranch.

Mr. E. E. Bacon, the grocer, wife and children, except one, are all laid up with the measles.

Next Thursday the City Council will commence sprinkling all the graded streets of the city.

According to the San Diego papers, the San Francisco Opera Troupe are giving great satisfaction.

The Minneapolis excursionists, about sixty in number, will arrive in Los Angeles this evening.

The dog poisoner has been around and dead dogs are numerous in the vacant lot near the new depot.

The Democratic primaries will be held June 3, and the County Convention will be held on June 10th.

The City Council have accepted the invitation of the Grand Army of the Republic to parade with them Decoration Day.

The new Schumaker block is nearly finished. A new sign, bearing the legend of Burch & Boal, adorns the front awning.

The Democratic club held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and enthused as much as possible under the circumstances.

The wife of Mr. Barbey, whose husband recently committed suicide at Compton, is reported to have become insane.

The base ball game between the Ivy and University clubs yesterday resulted in a victory for the Ivys. Score twenty to fifteen.

M. T. Collins is building a large warehouse 160 feet long on Alameda street near Requena street, which is to be used for storing hay.

The message of Mayor Toberman to the City Council, concerning the introduction of electric lights into this city, was favorably considered.

The mother of H. S. Dickey received a telegram yesterday from Stockton saying that she must come immediately if she wanted to see her son alive.

A force of seven men have been employed all the past week at the landslide on the Feliz ranch repairing the zanja, and will finish up next week.

Progress on the new Presbyterian church has been satisfactory the past week. The tower has reached its full height of one hundred and sixty-five feet.

Adolph Celis has some very fine specimens of gold in quartz from a ledge he has recently discovered, but, like a wise man, refuses to disclose its whereabouts.

Twenty dollars reward is offered by the American Laundry for the recovery of a valuable horse stolen from the premises a few days ago. See want column.

Conductor Cameron, of the S. P. R.R., is building two $1,000-residences on Walnut street, East Los Angeles. He will purchase some more lots slortly and will build on them also.

The Anaheim Gazette is ahead. It says Mr. G. R. Hinde had a strawberry 11¼ inches in circumference—nearly four inches in diameter—and others nearly as large. That takes the cake. Next!

Thomas Gray, an old and well known resident of this city, has purchased J. W. Davis' interest in the hay and wood business, at 78 Spring street. He will keep a good feed stable also on the premises. See card in "New To-day."

The horse which was run over by the Wilmington train on Thursday had been so seriously injured as to necessitate its being killed. It was shot four times before yielding up its life. It was cruel to allow it to suffer so long before shooting.

F. Adam, the pioneer merchant tailor, has just received a large stock of elegant summer goods which will be found well worthy of inspection. Mr. Adam is bound to be in the front. See his card in "New To-Day" and give him a call.

The American laundry is progressing finely. The recent addition of 30x20 feet gives them much better facilities for prompt execution of work, and the washing gives universal satisfaction. See card in "New To-day," and give this white labor institution the patronage it deserves.

The Globe Mills' coffees and spices, are steadily growing in favor. They guarantee all their goods to be as represented. Their Java coffee is unsurpassed anywhere, and their spices are as cheap and as good as those of any house on the coast. Ask your grocer for Globe Mills goods, and take no imported goods.

Sainsevaine street presents a much handsomer appearance since it has been graded, but the improvement would be still more marked if the ten feet in width from Alameda street east one hundred feet could be secured by the city in order to make the street uniform in width. A general desire exists for the consummation of this necessary improvement.

A narrow escape occurred at Santa Monica yesterday to a resident of that village. He was out in the surf hugely enjoying the embrace of old ocean, when, by a sudden slip, he was precipitated under the waves. He kicked and struggled furiously, and for a minute or two it seemed as if he would be swept out into deep water, but, with timely assistance, he was released from his perilous position.

SANTA BARBARA.

More about the Rose Festival Recently Held.

The Fruits Exhibited—Lemons, Limes, Oranges, Guavas, Japanese Persimmons, Apples, Cherimoya, etc., etc.

SANTA BARBARA, May 7, 1882.

This not being a fruit fair, the display of fruits was small, but the quality was of the best, and it was a pleasant commentary on the possibilities of fruit culture in this section. There were two long tables along the sides of the room, extending nearly its entire length, which were well filled. Among the many fruits were some fine specimens of the Lisbon and the Straw lemons, together with others of the best known varieties. The sweet limes were large and perfect in flavor and juiciness. Among the oranges was a thin-skinned choice orange, labeled "Hollister's Favorite." There were also some excellent specimens of Mandarin oranges, the Myrtle, and the celebrated Navel oranges. There was also exhibited, a fine plate of large, fresh-looking oranges, which had hung ripe upon the trees for two years. The sweet-rind lemons were exceedingly fair and choice. The Acapulco limes were large, juicy and of excellent flavor. Guavas were plentiful, together with an exhibit of clear, rich-colored guava jelly. There were some large-sized Japanese persimmons exhibited, which had been kept since last winter at just the stage of ripeness to be delicious. Upon this table was a branch from a lime tree on which were tiny buds and perfect blossoms and ripened fruit, showing how unwearied Nature works in this summer land without pause or rest.

There were a few apples, but their sides were getting wrinkled, as if old age had touched them. Many eyes looked longingly upon the exhibit of Cherimay, or custard apple, in its pale-green crust. It was least tempting to the sight and good for food.

The ripe yellow loquat was not the least among the exhibits. It is at home in our valleys, and yields bountifully its delicious fruit. There were some choice citrons on exhibition, and also some genuine dates, fully ripe, and tempting bananas, all perfected under our own sunny skies. The Japanese Mandarin orange has a rich, peculiar spicy flavor, which would make it favorite with many. The olives displayed were as good as could be desired, both as regards size and taste. They would satisfy the daintiest olive-loving epicure.

Best of all tempting things, there was nothing perhaps that caused so many mouths to water—mouths that for months have feasted on tropic and semi-tropic fruits—as the tempting boxes of ripe and luscious strawberries—great red glowing berries, bigger than the end of a giants thumb, and rightly named "Monarch of the West." The market has been supplied with them for a few weeks only. They are perhaps the choicest variety in the strawberry family, and were introduced here a few years ago by one of our enterprising fruit-growers, and their cultivation has been attended with marked success.

There was a small ripe squash upon one of the tables which speaks well for the thoughtfulness of the spring-time, which really, but for the almanac, we might mistake for mid-summer.

Altogether the exhibits were gratifying, and spoke well for our sunny land—a land of bloom and beauty, where plenty sits smiling in all her gates.

THE WEEK AT SANTA ANA.

Standard, 12th.

The people of this section will feel thankful to learn that Mr. A. S. Seeley, proprietor of the Coast Stage Line, running hence to San Diego, has reduced the fare.

Sedgwick Post has ordered a supply of G. A. R. buttons, and all comrades can be supplied on application at Post headquarters. It is specially desired that all comrades should appear in blue flannel fatigue coats on Decoration Day.

It may not be generally known that one of the best designed public school buildings in the county has been lately completed in the Newport District. Its beauty and finish reflect much credit on the builders, Messrs Drips & Morse.

Printed invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Paul to their friends, embracing about everybody in Santa Ana and the country at large, to attend the anniversary of their "China wedding," which is, as most everybody knows, twenty years of wedded bliss.

Herald, 13th.

We understand that Mr. J. W. Gardner has been offered $17,000 for his beautiful home place on the road to Tustin.

An election will be held in Orange on the 3d day of June, at which will be submitted the question of issuing bonds of the district to the amount of five thousand dollars, for the purpose of erecting a new school building.

Mr. C. A. Mosher proposes to get up an excursion to Catalina island, about the first week in July. The steamer Newport will be chartered to convey the excursionists to the island, where it is proposed to stay about two weeks, hunting, fishing and general enjoyment.

We learn that the bee men of this section will have a great deal of honey this season, their bees having done remarkably well. The bee men of the Santiago canyon, we understand, will shortly ship two carloads of honey to the East.

An old landmark has been removed from Fourth street to Sycamore street. It is the first dwelling built in Santa Ana, in November, 1869, by Mr. Tichenal. The first religious services held upon this side of the river were held in Mr. Tichenal's house before it was finished. When Mr. Tichenal located here the whole country was covered with mustard, the stalks being so thick that he used them for firewood.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES.

[Press and Horticulturist, May 13th.]

About 700,000,000 orange blossoms make the atmosphere of this modern Garden of Eden very fragrant.

The contract for carrying the mail from Riverside to Temescal three times a week and return has been let to V. H. Pease for $490.

Robert Hornbeck has been spending the week in San Francisco, attending the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows as the representative from the Riverside Lodge.

A. S. Titus is circulating a subscription paper to have the streets sprinkled the present season. Every business man in town should contribute his pro rata.

The new five cent Garfield postage stamp has been received at Riverside. It is printed with black ink and from an artistic standpoint is the best executed stamp now in use.

James Boyd is a strong believer in the efficacy of advertising. Last week he advertised two horses and a colt as strayed or stolen. On Monday he told a Press reporter that two of his horses had returned home, and the other would probably have come back but it couldn't read.

An effort is being made to suppress the Chinese wash house nuisance. The grand jury indicted three of them in Riverside and the owners were taken up one day this week and arraigned. The best thing for the settlement is to have the wash houses removed to the banks of the river below town, keeping the ironing houses in town as now. It is reported on good authority that the Chinamen use the dirty suds made from week to week in cleaning the clothing committed to their care, in order to save soap.

DOWNEY DOINGS.

[Signal.]

J. F. Groover, shipped 29 cases of castor oil this week.

D. G. Anderson sold his farm, of 83 acres to A. M. Boquist, of Ventura, for $6,000 last Monday.

We learn that the cheese factory at Norwalk is turning out a large amount of first-class cheese.

Some of the last lots of corn in the surrounding neighborhood are being delivered at the depot this week.

Haying has commenced in the vicinity of Downey. Several loads of hay passed through town this week.

The telephone fever is raging in Downey, and will probably not cease until a line is established between this place and Los Angeles.

Eighteen hundred dozen eggs were shipped from this station during the week past, and 6,950 dozen during the month of April.

There is an abundance of water in the ditches and everything now indicates the usual full crops in this valley. In this favored region there are no crop failures on account of drouth.

The shipments from the depot for the week ending May 11th were as follows: Corn, 50,804 lbs; barley, 41,060; eggs, 3,600; merchandise, 9,525. Total, 164,959 lbs. The receipts for the same period were, barley, 73,338 lb; bran, 20,000; merchandise, 13,710. Total, 107,048 lbs.

Parties and Socials to be held—Athletic Club Gentlemen's Social—Lightning—Miscellaneous.

PICNICS.

The Sunday school of the South Methodist church, held a picnic yesterday at Oak Grove, and had a good time. A Pasadena party were up Millard's canyon, and another private party were at Wilson's canyon.

ATHLETIC CLUB SOCIAL.

The Athletic Club will give one of their socials at their hall in Downey Block on Wednesday, May 31st, and will thereafter continue them once a month. All who attended their reception on the opening of their hall will remember that the occasion was a very enjoyable one, and the boys will continue to make them more so. A short programme, athletic exercises and dancing will constitute the entertainment. The club is composed of the best classes of Los Angeles society gentlemen.

ASK SOMETHING EASY,

The Phœnix Gazette editorially breaks its head on the following query. "A certain young man walks five-seventh of a mile for seven nights in the week to see his girl, and after putting in 112 nights he gets the 'g. b.' How many nights did he hoof it altogether, and how many weeks did it take him to understand that he wasn't wanted?"

A girl with flat feet like a fritter,
Couldn't find any shoes that would fit her;
But she tried on a "ten,"
Of the size made for men.
"Did they fit?" do you ask, "We should titter."

A GENTLEMEN'S SOCIAL.

A social will be given by the gentlemen at the Fort street M. E. Church, Friday evening May 19th. There will be an interesting programme and refreshments. The horrid men will have charge of the whole affair and everybody should attend to see how they can acquit themselves when they are on their good behavior.

LIGHTNING MANIPULATORS.

The telegraph "boys" of this city have been indulging their fancy for art pictures by having their photographs taken all in a group. In the center is the grave and reverend manager, Mr. R. R. Haines, supported by J. C. Sherer on the left. These two form the centrepiece. Ranged about in statuesque attitudes are the remainder of the force, Messrs. E. F. Kubel, H. H. Cooper, Frank C. Prescott, E. J. Kendall and Thos. F. Gray. It is as fine a group of gentleman as can be readily gotten together and the wish of the TIMES is that the lightning and other elements may handle them gingerly.

Lift them up tenderly,
Handle with care,
Fashioned so slenderly
Young and so fair.

There that will do—
Couldn't think of anything new.

LOS ANGELENYOS ABROAD.

The San Jose Times speaks of two Los Angelenyos at the exercises of the Santa Clara College, "Hon. R. F. Del Valle, of Los Angeles, of the class of '73 delivered a ten minute speech on "The American Citizen." The entertainment was concluded by an address, which was the gem of the evening. The speaker was Stephen M. White, of Los Angeles, of the class 71, and the subject was "A Few Reflections Upon Local Educational matters." The discourse occupied forty minutes, and engaged the rapt attention of its hearers from beginning to end. It was a logical presentation of facts coupled with flights of eloquence, and the speaker, was rewarded at its close with prolonged applause.".

THE EPISCOPAL SOCIAL.

About one hundred and fifty people attended the social given at the Hammond House Tuesday evening by the ladies of the Episcopal Church. This effort was made to raise funds to furnish the intended new church, that is to be built on Olive street near the park. The entertainment was a social and financial success. The evening's programme consisted of music, dancing and refreshments.
